
Why Choose Scottish Events?

Scottish Events are a multi-talented, experienced company with the expertise and vision to organise your event. At Scottish Events there is no event too small or too big! - we cover them all. We are also delighted to provide assistance for businesses no matter how small or large, that only require event management on an 'ad-hoc' basis.

Our clients include:

:: Scottish Government :: PointBlank Media Ltd :: Dairy Crest :: SSR Campaign :: Combat Stress :: Fundraising :: Black Watch Play

Our small team of experienced organisers are available each step of the way to organise and host your event. From our initial meeting through to each planning stage we will work with you and guide you to ensure that you have an enjoyable and well-organised event. We attend and oversee each event that we organise and debrief with our clients at the end of your event to ensure that everything was to your expectation and satisfaction.

Each event is designed and tailored to your specification and budget constraint. We use only the finest suppliers to ensure that everything is to the highest of standards. In some instances we can negotiate discounted prices for you through our collective buying power.

We are a friendly and professional small team who will put you and your associates at ease when you choose us. To have the best event possible – book the best events team possible!!
